SEGHESIO 2016

Sonoma County, California

Zinfandel

93 Points - Wine Spectator

Loaded with rich, jammy fruit, this plump Zin is a pleasure to drink, with bold accents of wild berry, spicy cinnamon and licorice that glide dynamically toward plush tannins. Drink now through 2025.

ALPHA BOX & DICE 'KIT & KABOODLE' NV 2017

McLaren Vale, South Australia

Red Blend

Aglianico, Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon and Mataro from McLaren Vale and Nebbiolo from the Adelaide Hills. Unlikely bedfellows, perhaps, but the creative juices at Alpha Box & Dice must have been flowing when they put this together, because it's a masterpiece of blending and the result is truly sensational. Each variety was vinified separately, with some of the wine spending over 4 years in oak, while others coming from the young and precocious 2017 vintage, adding brightness to the more mature elements.

AUTEUR 'MANCHESTER RIDGE' 2009

Mendocino Ridge, California

Pinoty Noir

93 Points - Wine Spectator

The 2009 Pinot Noir Manchester Ridge Vineyard is a serious wine. It boasts considerable structure and power. The fruit is deep, dark and totally beguiling, even if it is quite clear the wine is showing just the barest hint of its ultimate potential. Black cherries, menthol, tar and licorice inform the rich, intense finish.

Bottle 89~

LONG SHADOWS 'SEQUEL' 2015

Columbia Valley, Washington

Syrah

93 Points - Robert Parker

The 2015 Sequel Syrah is made by John Duval, for 15 years the winemaker of Penfolds Grange, Australia's most famous Shiraz. The fruit was sourced from five vineyards encompassing several AVAs and includes 3% Cabernet Sauvignon in the final blend. Ninety percent of the wine was aged for 18 months in small French oak. Purple/black in color, this superb Syrah offers grilled meat, bacon fat, game and wild blueberry aromas and flavors. On the palate the wine is spicy, layered, and plush with soft tannins and enough acidity to hold things together. This hedonistic effort can be enjoyed now but will easily last for 20+ years. Kudos to Alan Shoup for directing a project in which every wine (and winemaker) turned in an outstanding performance.

Bottle 94~

LONG SHADOWS 'PEDESTAL' 2013

Columbia Valley, Washington

Merlot, Cabernet, Petit Verdot

94 Points - Robert Parker

Aged 22 months in 85% new French oak, its deep purple color is followed by fabulous notes of plums, coffee beans, spice box and sweet oak in a full-bodied, decadent, ripe and expansive package. In general, Cabernet was more successful than Merlot in 2013, but you wouldn't know it by tasting this beauty. Drink it anytime over the coming decade.

Bottle 120~

CORRA 2009

Napa Valley, California

Cabernet Sauvignon

94 Points - Wine Spectator

A rich, expansive Cabernet, with tiers of black and blue fruits joined by currant, melted licorice, mocha and cedar flavors. Yet for all its size and density, this offers the finesse and grace found in the best 2009s. Best from 2013 through 2023. 375 cases made.

Bottle 200~

STAGLIN FAMILY VINEYARD 2004

Rutherford, Napa, North Coast, California

Cabernet Sauvignon

97 Points - Robert Parker

A striking, provocative, complex set of aromatics jump from the glass of this dense plum/purple-colored wine. Beautiful plum, anise and black currant fruit characteristics are found in this voluptuously textured, opulent, full-bodied wine. This compelling effort from the Staglin Family appears to be close to full maturity given its impressive aromatics and silky mouthfeel, but its impeccable balance suggests it will last another 15+ years.

Bottle 220~

SAXUM 'BROKEN STONES' 2012

Paso Robles, California

Syrah

97 Points - Robert Parker

The 2012 Syrah Broken Stones is a beauty. Made from 79% Syrah, 7% Petite Sirah and the rest Grenache, Mourvedre and Roussanne, it offers up full-bodied, decadent, yet incredibly pure notes of creme de cassis, smoked earth, pepper and violets. Seamless and silky, yet with a great mid-palate and notable tannin, it needs 2-3 years of bottle age and will have 15 years or more of overall longevity.

Bottle 300~

BERGSTROM 'SIGRID' 2011

Willamette Valley, Oregon

Chardonnay

91 Points - Robert Parker

offers generous lime, tangerine and pineapple deftly folded into butter cream, with honey, nut pastes and lanolin adding to both the textural patina and finishing complexity of a vibrant and delightfully buoyant performance. A hint of wet stone in the finish helps set off the rich and luscious elements.

BRECA 'OLD VINES' 2015

Aragon, Spain

Garnacha

92 Points - Wine Spectator

Top 100 #29

Round, smooth and dense, this red shows harmony and balance. Plum and black-berry flavors mingle with black olive, toast and mineral notes, supported by well-integrated tannins and fresh acidity, leaving a lovely floral finish. Drink now through 2027.

Bottle 40~

VINA ARDANZA RESERVA 2009

Rioja, Spain

Tempranillo, Garnacha

93 Points - Robert Parker

This is the first vintage when they have been able to use the fruit from their new Garnacha vineyards in the village of Tudelilla. There are notes of stewed meat, cured leather, cloves, other spices and an overall balsamic character. The palate feels solid, consistent, nicely built, with abundant tannins and good balancing acidity. This should stand up to food and be able to develop in bottle.

Bottle 74~

MAS DOIX 'SALANQUES' 2015

Priorat, Spain

Garnacha, Carinena, Syrah

92+ Points - Robert Parker

A similar blend of 65% Garnacha, 25% Cariñena and 10% Syrah resulted in a 2015 Salanques with higher ripeness and notably lower acidity, reflecting a much warmer and drier year. It's ripe and with lots of earthiness, mineral and characterful, with ripe fruit without excess, elegant tannins and a polished, sleek texture within the rusticity of the zone.

Bottle 78~

QUINTA SARDONIA 2011

Castilla Leon, Spain

Proprietary Blend

93+ Points - Robert Parker

2011 is extremely ripe and the wine reached 15.4% alcohol, but it doesn't show. It starts quite lactic, with notes of fruits-of-the-forest yogurt, spicy and lush, with no noticeable oak. The wine needs plenty of time and air, so decanting it in advance is a good idea. The palate is full-bodied, but it has very good balance and acidity, a special liveliness provided by the mineral, chalky, drying sensation of the texture. A soil-driven red of character.

Bottle 105~

MACAN 'BENJAMIN DE ROTHSCHILD & VEGA SICILIA' 2010

Rioja, Spain

Tempranillo

93+ Points - Robert Parker

In its second vintage, the Grand Vin 2010 Macan has a very Rioja profile, subtle aromas of forest floor, spices, blackberries (in fact a mixture of red and black fruit) and a lactic touch with smoky undertones plus hints of leather and ink. The palate shows good depth and is clean, focused, structured and balanced. Some earthy hints, somehow mineral, show through on this modern Rioja showing classical proportions: a clean, finely crafted Rioja.

Bottle 140~

TORRE MUGA 2014

Rioja, Spain

Tempranillo, Mazuelo, Graciano

94 Points - Robert Parker

It combines the freshness of the higher-altitude vineyards of the Prado Enea with the power of the lower ones used for the Muga range. It fermented in oak vats and had a shorter élevage of only 15 months (it used to be more), and the different varieties were kept separated until the penultimate racking when they were blended. There is more volume here and some more spice from the élevage, with an open and expressive nose. It's medium-bodied with some fine tannins and less weight in the mid-palate than other vintages.

Bottle 140~

NUMANTHIA 2011

Toro, Spain

100 % Tempranillo

92 Points - Robert Parker

The 2011 Numanthia is a powerful and concentrated Tempranillo with abundant aromas of peat, tar, shoe polish and ripe dark fruit with hints of minerality and a marked earthiness. The palate is warm, with noticeable alcohol that seems to coat the tannins while the acidity is barely enough to provide freshness for such an amount of glycerol. With time, the aromas are clearly from the barrel: dark chocolate, espresso coffee and toasted bread. XXL for sure, for fans of the style.

Bottle 142~

MALLEOLUS DE SANCHO MARTIN 2009

Ribera del Duero

100% Tinto Fino

97-100 Points - Robert Parker

The 2009 Malleolus de Sanchomartin was tasted from a barrel sample. Opaque purple in color with lovely floral aromas, Asian spices, and incense, on the palate it effortlessly combines power with elegance. It has superb grip, great volume, and plush, succulent fruit. It has the structure to evolve for 8-10 years and should drink well through 2040.

Bottle 230~

RAFAEL PALACIOS 'AS SORTES' 2012

Valdeorras, Spain

100% Godello

93 Points - Wine Spectator

This white shows precision and energy, with bracing acidity fueling focused flavors of pear, heather, mineral and smoke. Seamless and lively, with alluring stony and floral notes that mingle beautifully on the long, fresh finish. Drink now through 2020. 80 cases imported.
